The Family Reflection

Stanley Turner, son of the late James Wesley Turner and Pattie Brown Turner, was born January 13, 1947 in Greensboro, North Carolina. He departed this life on Tuesday, April 1, 2014.

Stanley was educated in the Greensboro Public Schools and graduated from James B. Dudley High School in 1964. He attended NC A&T State University. His early religious and church affiliations were at Grace Lutheran Church in Greensboro, NC. He later became a member of First Baptist Church of Trinity and was a member until his death.

He married the former Priscilla Diane Alford on November 20, 1993; she preceded him in death after 20 years of marriage.

Stanley's fond memories were his sports experiences, where he lettered in three sports, including football, basketball, and track. He was also inducted into the James B. Dudley High School Hall of Fame/Hall of Distinction in 2003. He was a retired long distance truck driver.

In addition to his wife and parents, he was preceded in death by: sister, Gwendolyn B. Turner.

He is survived by: sister, Cynthia Turner Williams, Greensboro; 3 nephews, Major Wesley L Turner, USAF, Yadrick Wesley Williams, Greensboro, and Aaron Troy Williams (Toni), Greensboro, a host of relatives and friends.

The family wishes to thank the many friends for their comforting messages, prayers and all other expressions of kindness shown to us during this time of transition. May God bless each of you.

NO TEARS IN HEAVEN

There will be no tears in Heaven

No trials to linger on.

None of life's discomforts,

That each of us have known;

Angels line the way

As far as the eye can see,

There will be no time for sorrow

No nights of misery.

And though our hearts are heavy

In parting we should find,

Our love one leaves for better days,

A better place in time.
