ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Emmery Ann Lattimore, thank you for all acts of kindness during this time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you.

So go and run free

So go and run free with the angels
Dance around the golden clouds
For the Lord has chosen you to be with him
And we should feel nothing but proud
Although he has taken you from us
And our pain a lifetime will last
Your memory will never escape us
But make us glad for the time we did have
Your face will always be hidden
Deep inside our hearts
Each precious moment you gave us
Shall never, ever depart
So go and run free with the angels
As they sing so tenderly
And please be sure to tell them
To take good care of you for me...

Obituary

Emmery Ann Lattimore daughter of the late John Dodson, Sr. and Laura Dodson was born on February 17, 1946 in Greensboro, North Carolina. Emmery passed away peacefully on March 31, 2018 at the age of 72. She attended J.C. Price School and graduated from James B. Dudley High School in 1964, where she played in the Band. Emmery also attended North Carolina A&T State University. At an early age she professed her faith in Jesus Christ and joined church. She was a faithful member of St. Phillips A.M.E. Zion Church until her health declined. At St. Phillips Emmery enjoyed singing in the "Chancellor Choir". She was a leader over the children of the church "Buds of Promise", a class leader and on the missionary board. Emmery loved visiting the sick and shut in.

Emmery was an active member of the Ladies Auxiliary VFW Club. Her hobbies were singing and shopping on the QVC Network. She was known as the "QVC Queen". She worked as a housekeeper for Guilford County Schools for many years and ended as a housekeeper for North Carolina A&T State University.

She was united in holy matrimony to Conrad W. Lattimore in 1979. This union was blessed with four children. Conrad preceded her in death on September 24, 2001.

As a result of her generous spirit and warm personality, she was loved by many. Emmery loved to laugh. She was preceded in death by her father and mother John, Sr., and Laura Dodson, John, Jr., (affectionately known as Po Boy) and Michael (Mike) Dodson brothers.

Her beautiful life will forever be cherished by her children: Natasha Booker (Droan) of the home, Andre Morris (Arrovia) of Jamestown, North Carolina and Monique and Keisha Lattimore of Pittsboro, North Carolina, sister Alberta-Plucy (Conneth) Clinton and brother William, Bill (Carlotta) Dodson of Greensboro, North Carolina, her grandchildren: Chandler-Chan Boy Morris, Tyler Morris, Brandon Morris and Zaria and Zaki Booker of the home, Zachary and Octavia Booker and one special daughter Mary G. Holloway and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
