Obituary

Marion Elizabeth Morehead-Mills was born on September 7, 1946, in Greensboro, NC to David W. and Ophelia Morehead. As their second child and first daughter, she was immediately deemed a pearl of great price. She attended parochial school for a strong foundation, then attended Greensboro Public School where she graduated from James B. Dudley High School in 1965.

Marion proceeded to Livingston College in Livingston, NC for 2 years where she met and married the father of her children. She chose to complete her education at Cortez Peters Secretarial School in Washington, DC. Shortly after she gave birth to a fine son in 1967. When Derrick was five, the family relocated back to Greensboro, NC where Marion worked at Western Electric.

Marion's beautiful baby girl Shawna was born in 1973, completing her family. Shortly after this event, she made a career change, moving to NC A&T State University's Department of Summer School and Continuing Education, where she worked for more than 20 years, retiring in 2000.

As a single parent, Marion raised her children with wit, wisdom, humor, and fabulous cooking. Life was not always easy, but Marion made sure it was always sweet. Never one to meet a stranger, her ready smile and positive attitude set a tone that impacted everyone who had the pleasure to know her. Having a close knit family who were supportive of her was her life's testimony.

In 2001, Marion relocated to Washington, DC as a result of her illness where she remained until her death on July 9, 2005.

Marion was preceded in death by her beloved parents and brother David Jerome. To cherish her memory, there are her two children - Derrick Jeter of Silver Spring, MD, and Shawna Jeter of Washington, DC.; two grandchildren Evan and Taylor Jeter of Greensboro; her loving sister Faye Nock of Silver Spring, MD; two nieces Makia Morehead of Passaic, New Jersey and Kimberly Morehead of Orlando, Florida; close cousins Nathaniel (Water) Morehead of Baltimore, MD and Glendia Morehead Hatton of St. Louis, MO; dear long time friends Carol Jessup Owens and Phillip Hatchett, as well as a host of relatives, friends and loved ones.
